In Practice

Dignified and dapper bath

For a bachelor client who wanted his bath to resemble a gentleman's club, designer Linda Nohavec, ASID, Lake Street Studios, Bellevue, WA, and architect Scott Hommas, Gelotte Hommas Architecture, Kirkland, WA, used a generous amount of wood and mirror to achieve the desired style. To keep the space from becoming too dark, Decora glass block systems from Seattle Glass Block were used to let the sunshine in but keep nosy neighbors out. A slight wave pattern provides the maximum amount of light transmission with subtle visual distortion for just the right amount of privacy. Sizes range from 2 in. to 4 in. in thickness.
