Modern Lavatory faucet by Cifial USA - the new Hexa Collection

[New Product Coverage from KBIS 2008]

Cifial adds a bold new look to the bathroom with its modern lavatory faucet range - the Hexa Collection. The sleek high-arch widespread design creates a stunning display as the water flows elegantly into the basin. "With a timeless quality, the Hexa Collection adds a modern twist to Art Deco, and reinforces Cifial's ongoing commitment to innovation and design," says Dean Sever, marketing manager for Cifial. "Cifial strives to offer homeowners design freedom with features and finishes that can match most any decor." Measuring almost 6 inches long and over 9 inches high, the Hexa Widespread lavatory faucet creates a striking focal point for any modern bathroom. With a choice of two handle styles, a lever or a cross, the faucet compliments both traditional and contemporary design. Available finishes include polished chrome, satin nickel, polished nickel and weathered. This new lavatory collection includes matching shower trims and bath accessories ranging from towel bars to toilet paper holders. For more information about the Hexa Collection call 800.528.4904 or visit Cifial USA.
